VOLUME 23.

SEDALIA, MO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1891.

NUMBER 19.

"CONFIDENCE BEGETS LOVE."

CHILD. "Grandma, kiss me good-night. Sister is asleep, but we so love to hear you tell of all the ladies that call you Mother."

Mrs. PINKHAM. "Yes, darling, may do as I have done."

CHILD. "Everybody loves you, grandma; I wish everybody would love me."

Mrs. PINKHAM. "Everyone will love you, my child, if they can confide in you."

The above dialogue tells its own story; even the little child, without knowing why her grandmother is so universally loved, sees in her face a light of intellectual sympathy that satisfies her. That sympathy has extended itself all over the world, for wherever civilized women exist, Mrs. Pinkham is known and revered.

A MILLIONAIRE'S ROMANCE.

A Beautiful Stranger in the Role of the Late E. C. Allen's Widow.

Augusta, Me., Oct. 10.—A strange woman has appeared in Augusta, claiming to be the widow of Millionaire E. C. Allen. She says she was married to him in Paris several years ago.

Allen was buried in Augusta on Sunday, Aug. 9, and two watchers who were stationed at his grave that night were startled about midnight by the appearance of a woman, who knelt at the grave and seemed to be in great sorrow. The watchers did not disturb her, and after about half an hour she went away. The next night, at about the same hour, she again appeared, kneeling and weeping as before. She was allowed to remain undisturbed until she was about to arise, when she was accosted. She started to run, but her feet became entangled in the evergreen and she fell to the ground. The men assisted her to her feet and then, for the first time, she spoke in French, demanding to know why she was rudely treated. She said she was a relative and was permitted to depart. She was a beautiful woman of evident refinement.

One of Mr. Allen's kinswoman, to whom the circumstance was reported said she must be an impostor. An hour or so later, it is said Miss Allen received a visit from a stranger and a long interview took place.

The relatives make no statement in regard to the case at present.

OFF A HIGH BRIDGE.

A Mysterious Suicide Who Leaves No Clue Behind Except a Hat.

New York, Oct. 10.—Kyle's boat house is on the Harlem river, just north of High Bridge. John Freleigh has charge of the boats. Owing to the chilly weather yesterday Freleigh had little to do but watch the tide rise and fall.

Freleigh was half asleep at 5:45 last night when he heard a heavy splash, and glancing out on the river thought he saw a man's form disappear under the water. He certainly saw the ripples diverging from what appeared to be a man's derby floating not far from the granite piers of High Bridge.

Policeman Boyle came along just then, and he and Freleigh got into a rowboat and pulled rapidly to the spot and picked up a brown flat topped derby. The water had splashed eight feet up on the stone pier of the bridge, proving exclusively that some heavy object had either been dropped or thrown from the bridge. No body could be found. They poled about in the mud, the tide being low, but without finding any other clue.

William Reilly owns a dancing pavilion and boat-house on the New York shore, a short distance below the bridge, and he also saw the splash but did not see the body.

Robert Barrell, the engineer in the pumping station at the New York end of High Bridge, says that about 5:30 o'clock his dogs began barking and he heard rapid footsteps approaching along the path leading from Swartz's hotel on Tenth avenue.

The person was evidently running and Barrell opened the door of the engine house just in time to see a man in his shirt sleeves rush by with a hurried stride. The stranger ran hurriedly along the bridge and disappeared in the gloom. He did not see the man jump, but as soon as he heard of the hat being found in the river the circumstance of the man running past in his shirt sleeves came to his memory.

A NAUGHTY ACT.

To Be Tried for Committing Rape.

Tim Donohue is engaged in railroad work on the Iron Mountain. He came to Sedalia last Tuesday on a visit, but life has not been all serene with him since his arrival in the Queen City. He has fallen into the hands of the law and on a very serious charge, which if substantiated will make life more than a troubled dream to him.

Amelia Messer made complaint before Justice Blair that Donohue invited her to take a walk a day or two ago, in the suburbs of the city, and when in a secluded spot forced her to submit to his unholy desire, handling her very roughly in the accomplishment of his purpose.

The trial of the case is set for October 14, at 9 o'clock in the morning. His bond was placed at $1,000 which was given.

A BIG ROW.

There was a dance at Ashbrook's in East Sedalia last night. There is also a saloon in the neighborhood. Thereby hangs a gory tale. Several young men, among the number Joe Wells, Bert Whipple, Trader McVey and Pete Cally it seems passed about as much of their time in the saloon as at the dance, and as a consequence at that hour when "church yards yawn," they became boisterous and quarrelsome. While in Hockaday's restaurant they became involved in a rough and tumble fight and dishes, castors, chairs, etc., passed with lightning rapidity. There was much manly blood wasted, and the last-named young man suffers from a broken arm. There are warrants out for those engaged in the fight, and they will probably figure in a case before Judge Halstead in the morning wherein the state of Missouri is plaintiff.

FIRE WHERE DRUNKARDS ARE CURED.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 10.—It is reported that a fire is raging in Dwight, that the town is in danger of destruction and that fire engines from Bloomington have been asked for.

O'MALLEY CLEARED.

New Orleans, Oct. 10.—Dominick O'Malley, the detective who figured so conspicuously in the Hennessy murder trial, and who is supposed to have bribed the jury and caused the lynching of the Italians in the Parish prison, was tried Thursday under an indictment for jury bribery and was discharged, the state showing no evidence against him. It was believed that there would be no difficulty in convicting O'Malley.

O'Malley always insisted that the indictments against him were found simply to justify the lynching. To do this it was necessary to charge that the jury had been bribed, and as he managed the case for the Italians the bribery was fixed on him.

A FREIGHT WRECK.

The Night Passenger Trains From the West Not Yet Arrived.

The passenger trains that were due here at 11:55 last night and 12:40 this morning, from the west are reported 8 hours late.

The cause is a bad freight wreck near Pleasant Hill. Seventeen cars there was no loss of life.

It is impossible to get details.

The wrecking train left this place almost immediately after the receipt of the news for the scene of disaster.

The passenger trains could not come by the way of Lexington on account of being afraid to trust the heavy engines on the bridges of that route.

ATTEMPTED PATRICIDE.

Charles Porter, Jr., Fires Five Shots at His Aged Father.

Last Wednesday night, as noted in yesterday's BAZOO, Charles Porter, sr., and his son, colored residents of Lincolnville, had a lively scrap. The son made for the old man with a hatchet and the father telled the boy to the ground with a blow from a club. Constables Barnett and Drake arrested young Porter and he was taken before Justice Fisher, by whom he was released on bond, his case being set for Saturday, October 10.

This morning the trouble between father and son was renewed and came very near resulting in a bloody tragedy. After the renewal of the quarrel, the infuriated and unnatural son pulled out a revolver and fired five shots in rapid succession at the old man. None of the bullets struck the intended victim and his escape from death was truly miraculous.

Constable Ramsey and Deputy Constable Barnett were notified of the affair, and were not long in arresting the would be patricide.

He was arraigned before Justice Levens this morning and a continuance was had to next Monday morning at 10 o'clock. His bond was placed at $300, which he was unable to give and was remanded to jail.

TRAIN ROBBERIES.

Paris, Tex., Oct. 10.—A desperate attempt was made to hold up the south bound passenger train on the Frisco road 100 miles south of here at 3 o'clock this morning.

Several shots were fired. Conductor Carr knocked one of the robbers down with his lamp just as the man was preparing to fire with his pistol into the conductor's breast.

Particulars not obtainable.

OKLAHOMA SUFFERING.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 10.—The cold weather of the past week has caused terrible suffering among hundreds of people on claims in the new lands. Many of these people have no shelter whatever. Large numbers are sick and many have been brought here for medical treatment. Samuel Mock of Stillwater, Ok., was yesterday found dead from exposure on his claim in the Iowa reservation.

Near Powhaska, Osage nation, Antone Rogers was showing a crowd of admiring friends how the Dalton boys could twirl a revolver and shoot at a mark, when the revolver was discharged and the bullet passed entirely through Roger's body, killing him instantly.

NOT IN IT.

The name of the Trader McVey was published in the BAZOO some days ago as being one of a party engaged in a brawl in East Sedalia. Officer Kahrs, who made the arrests states that the young man was not implicated in the fight.

SENT TO JAIL.

A few days ago the residence of W. H. DeJarnett, who resides south of Lamonte, was entered during the absence of the family, and clothing to the amount of $25 or $30 burglarized. Mr. DeJarnett reported his loss to the officers and offered a reward for the recovery of the stolen articles. Constable Ramsey and Police Officer Scally arrested a man named Emmett Wood, near Iona City, with the clothing in his possession.

The case came up before Justice Levens yesterday, who placed him under bond of $400 to await the action of the grand jury. Failing to give bail he was sent to jail.

IT IS RUTH CLEVELAND.

New York, Oct. 10.—Ex-President Cleveland said yesterday of the baby: "We have settled on a name and it is Ruth. This was the name of Mrs. Cleveland's grandmother and has always been specially liked by her. In connection with this publication of this item, which, I hope, will end much apparent curiosity on the subject, I desire especially that mention be made of the extreme and kindly interest in us and our child shown by the people everywhere throughout the country. We have received almost innumerable congratulations and kind remembrances. From the president of the United States and many humble citizens have come hearty felicitations. All this has been appreciated, but, since it will be impossible to acknowledge all these messages separately, I hope this public recognition will be accepted as sufficient."

FAIR COMMISSIONERS.

The Missouri Members at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 10.—The state board of World's fair commissioners met the club room of the Coates house this morning. The members present were N H Gentry of Pettis county, the president of the board; Nathan Frank of St Louis; H H Gregg of Joplin, Dr. Coffey of Platte City; Hugh J M Gowan of Kansas City; Charles W Green of Brookfield, the secretary of the board, and J K Gwynn, the executive commissioner.

Governor Francis was not able to remain to attend the meeting and left for St Louis this morning. The commission went into executive session at 10 o'clock this morning and expects to remain in session until midnight to-night.

This morning the ladies auxiliary board, consisting of Mrs. Pattie Moore, Mrs. Blannerhassett Adams, Mrs. J N Edwards, and Mrs. S P Sparks, made its report. The members of the board have been visiting county fairs and its report described the character of the woman's work exhibited. The members of this board were employed for sixty days and received $250 each for their services to-day. It is not probable that the board will be given any further work. It was not the idea of those who drew up the bill creating the commission that there should be any such board, and some members of the commission think what should be exhibited at Chicago are the products of the state that such a board can be of no service in selecting.

The commission will to-day issue an advertisement for plans for the Missouri building at the fair. The building will cost about $50,000. The competition will be open only to architects.

The committee on building and site consists of Nathan Frank, Hugh J. McGowan and Charles W. Green. This committee will leave for Chicago in a few days to come to some definite understanding about the site for the Missouri building.

FOOT BADLY MASHED.

Ed. Baughman, a young brakeman on the M. K. & T., railway, while making a coupling at Denison, yesterday, caught his foot in a frog and horribly mashed it. He was brought to the city this morning and is now at the hospital. There are fears that the foot will have to be amputated.

FATAL AFFRAY.

St. Joseph, Oct. 10.—This noon Sydney and Charles P. Helps, brothers, quarrelled over the possession of a barber shop owned jointly by them. Sydney slashed his brother across the neck with a razor, inflicting a mortal wound. Sydney then fled and has not yet been apprehended.

PROTECT OUR BREAD.

The machinery of the law has not been put to work too speedily against the fraudulent use of ammonia and alum in Baking Powders. Both health and the pocket of the people are demanding protection. The legislatures of New York, Illinois and Minnesota have taken this matter of adulteration up, and especially that of Baking Powders. It will be in the interest of public health when their sale is made a misdemeanor in every State in the UNION, and the penalties of the law are rigidly enforced. There is no article of human food more wickedly adulterated than that of Baking Powder.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder having a general sale that is free from ammonia, alum or taint of any kind of impurity. It makes the sweetest and lightest bread, biscuit and cake that are perfectly digestible whether hot or cold. It costs more to manufacture Dr. Price's than any other baking powder. It is superior to every other known and the standard for forty years.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.
